

BRITISH EVENTING
CROSS COUNTRY FENCE JUDGE TRAINING DAY

At
Stonar School, Atworth, Melksham, Wiltshire

On
Saturday 17th February 2007
(There will be no charge and a light lunch will be provided)

Programme

- | | |
|-------|---|
| 09.45 | Coffee & registration |
| 10.30 | Welcome & introductions |
| 10:45 | Session 1: The Role & Responsibilities of the Fence Judge –
Richard Moss & Anthony Fooks |
| 11:45 | Session 2: How the Eventing Day runs –
Marguerite Cowley & Anthony Fooks |
| 12:45 | Open Forum and Lunch |
| 14:00 | Practical Demonstrations |
| 15:15 | Tea and closing remarks |
| 15:30 | Depart |

The morning sessions are presentations covering the 'theory' of fence judging and the role you play in the overall successful running of an Event.

In the afternoon everybody will be in the indoor arena where 'cross country' type fences will have been built. These will be jumped both correctly and incorrectly by a rider to enable discussion about the practicalities of actually judging fences on the ground.

We will also cover the procedure for stopping competitors and, where possible, demonstrate what to do should there be a problem at a fence.
